

Help With Your Appeal

Australian Capital Territory

You might find it helpful to contact a community or other organisation for help in preparing your case and/or during your hearing. You should make contact as soon as possible, as your adviser may need time to prepare information for your hearing.

Please note that the tribunal does not pay the fees of solicitors or other professionals.

Links to a number of relevant organisations are also given on our website (www.ssat.gov.au).

The Welfare Rights Centre is an independent community legal centre which can help you prepare your appeal. They employ professional staff who may also be able to represent you in your appeal. All services provided by the Welfare Rights Centre are free of charge.
